A Study in Jeremiah: Standing Tall, Part 5
Pray

1. How are we to live in a culture that has such different beliefs than we do?

Discuss.

2. Read Jeremiah 29:1,4

According to these verses, who is responsible for the Israelites being in exile in Babylon?

3. Read Jeremiah 1:10

Describe the different types of ministry that Jeremiah will have with the people of Judah.

4. Read Psalm 137:1-4

We have a choice. We can sit around, sing sad songs and cry or we can get up and make the best of what we have. So how does Jeremiah encourage them to respond?

5. Read Jeremiah 29:5-6

The exiles are being told to accept where they are. That Babylon is not your home forever but it is your home for now. What are your thoughts about this?

6. "One of the first steps in turning our mess into something beautiful is to realize that God never makes a mistake." Discuss.

7. Read Jeremiah 29:7

We're reminded of the words of Jesus, "I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you." Discuss.

8. "It's hard to keep hating someone when you pray for them everyday." Discuss.

9. Read Jeremiah 29:8-9

Here are 3 questions to ask to determine if a teacher is false:

1. What does the teacher say about Jesus?

2. Does the teacher share the gospel?

3. Does the teacher have the attitude of Christ?

Discuss.

10. Read Jeremiah 29:11

It's amazing that even right in the middle of judgment you can still find hope in the grace of God. That God's ultimate plan and purpose is to have a relationship with you.

11. What should be the response of God's people to this new found amazing grace of God?

Read Jeremiah 29:12-13

"Our complete hope is in God's willingness to be found."

12. So how's your hope today?

Do you feel like Noah surrounded by the flood?
