

Argyle LifeGroup Study Guide: Luke, part 10, March 10, 2019

1. Read Luke 6:20-23

2. Luke 6:20 begins with a “Reader’s Digest” version of what we call “The Sermon on the Mount”. Some theologians believe they are two different sermons. I believe they are the same but shared from two different points of view. Luke is known for his _____ style of writing.

3. Jesus is teaching a completely new definition of what it means to be blessed. You are not blessed by getting more, having more or doing more. You are blessed by _____ more.

4. Read Luke 6:20-26. Jesus gives us four principles. 1. Trust God with your _____. Jesus told them they didn’t need a change in their situation, they just needed to trust God with their situation. What does that mean?

5. Read Luke 6:22. This does not mean that you can be rude, arrogant, argumentative, and then when people get upset with you because you’re a jerk, you pull out this verse and claim you’re blessed. What do you think this verse means?

6. Read Philippians 3:10. When we are treated like He was, it’s evidence that we are living like He lived. What does that mean to you?

7. Life is built on integrity. Integrity is built on everyday choices. Our choices are based on our principles and our principles must be founded on our _____.

8. Read Philippians 1:29

If you believe in Jesus, you will suffer for Him. Do you agree with this statement?

9. Read Luke 6:27-28. How should we treat our enemies?

10. Read Romans 5:5. What does this verse mean to you?

11. Aren’t we suppose to take a stand against sin? Yes we are, against sin, but we are not to take a stand against the sinner. What’s the difference?

12. Read Luke 6:29-30. “If anyone hits you on the cheek, offer the other also” does not mean to ignore how God created you to defend yourself. Do you agree or disagree?

13. Read Luke 6:39. How does pride blind us? Read Luke 6:41-42

14. Read Luke 6:46-49. It’s not enough just to come to church and hear God’s Word, walk away and then not do anything with it. We must _____ what God commands us to do.

Trust God with your situation, love others unconditionally, be real with yourself, and do what God says.
