

Argyle LifeGroup Study Guide, Luke, part 37, Jan 19, 2020

1. Read Luke 12:22-34 (CSB)

2. A definition of worry is the misery we feel over the possible loss of something or someone that is very important to us. We worry over things that probably won't happen. Someone did a study and _____ of the time the things we worry about do not happen.

3. Jesus told us not to worry about our life, the things we need and our future.

Jesus told us not to strive.

That means not to try to fix it in our own strength.

Jesus told us not to be anxious.

That means we need to learn to be patient.

Jesus told us not to be afraid.

That means we need to learn to _____ Him.

4. Read Luke 12:24 Jesus probably chose the raven as an example because the raven was despised and considered unclean. If God will feed the lowly raven, then certainly He will take care of the people He loves. What do you think?

5. Read Luke 12:28 At the heart of worry is a faith problem because worry is the _____ of faith.

6. When we live our life with worry, we are living our life like we believe there is no God. Have you ever thought of it that way?

7. When we live with worry, we are not putting our trust in God and so we are not living by faith. Read Romans 14:23 (CSB) Do you think worry is a sin?

8. Read Luke 12:32 So God is saying,

"How can you worry? How can you have any anxiety? Because it's my good pleasure, in fact, I delight in giving you the kingdom with all of it's riches of righteousness, peace and joy. It's all yours with no strings attached. So any worry, any anxiety is foolish and unnecessary."

How does that make you feel?

9. Read Luke 12:33 The key to a worry-free life. God owns everything. It's all on loan from Him.

When the truth that we don't own anything becomes real in our life, worry and anxiety will disappear.

10. Read Luke 12:34 It always comes back to the heart. Where is your heart? There's your treasure. Read Philippians 4:6-7
