1. Read Luke 24:13-32
2. Everyone is amazed that Jesus is gone. But no one can put it all together that everything is happening _____ like Jesus said it would.
3. The Christian faith is founded on the Scriptures.
Everything we need to know about God and how to live the Christian life is contained in the _____.
4. Read Luke 24:13. These two disciples had seen everything that had happened that week in Jerusalem and they are confused and _____.
5. Read Luke 24:15. When was the last time you argued your theological view on social media and someone replied, "OK. Now I see it. You are right and I am wrong."
When was the last time that happened? Never. So why argue on social media?
6. Read Luke 24:16. But why were they prevented from recognizing Him?
Perhaps Jesus wanted the focus to be on the truth of scripture.
He wanted them to focus on the message, not the messenger.
7. Read Luke 24:19. I have always believed that Jesus was funny. That Jesus enjoyed sharing funny stories with His friends. One of our core values at Argyle is "We will have fun and laugh often."
Serving God with those you love is a blast!
8. These disciples knew all of the facts of the gospel, but they did not know the face of the gospel. They were able to talk about the ministry of Jesus. They had all of the knowledge in their head, but they were missing the truth by 18 inches.
18 inches is the distance from our head to our heart.
9. Read Luke 24:25. We are foolish when we refuse to believe the truth.
We are foolish when we refuse to allow the truth to "Bring real life change through Jesus from the inside out."
10. Read Luke 24:27. Jesus is telling us that all of the scriptures are about Him.
It's not about us. We cannot properly understand the scriptures until we understand how it connects to the life, death and resurrection of Jesus.
11. It's so easy for us to get it wrong and to get our priorities out of order. It's the facts first, then faith, and then feelings. The Facts are the truth of the inspired Word of God. Our Faith is founded on those facts. Our Feelings, must be based on the facts of scripture and our faith in God.
